mailing fee of fifteen (15) dollars. Third Notice and Assessment of Second Monetary Penalty

A third notice will be sent if the owner has not complied with the second notice, or if the violation has returned or has been repeated. The third notice will inform the owner that a Second Monetary Penalty fee has been assessed, which is comprised of one hundred (100) dollars plus a certified mailing fee of fifteen (15) dollars. Inspections will be conducted to coincide with the terms of the notices.

Certified Mailing Fee

In addition to the monetary penalty there will be a fifteen (15) dollar certified mailing fee assessed per violation.

Exception to Notice Procedure

Violations posing a threat to the health, safety, and welfare of the Community as a whole or any one or more other owners may require immediate action and thus create exceptions to the foregoing notice provisions. Examples of health, safety, and welfare violations include, but are not limited to, the following: accumulation of trash and/or other materials that may attract pests; threat of flood or fire damage to neighboring properties; or a collapsed structure or tree blocking the road or drivers' lines of vision.

Right of Self-Help

In accordance with the CC&R's Article V, Section 5.2, the Association has the right (but not the obligation) to enter the owner's property and to provide all maintenance and repairs that are necessary to remove the violation. Entry by the Association and any of its agents is not an actionable trespass. The Association may assess the Owner for the costs of all maintenance and repairs performed by the Association.

Opportunity to be Heard

The Association recognizes each owner's right to explain the reasons why there is a violation of the CC&R's, particularly if the violation results in an assessment. Before any fee is assessed, an owner has the opportunity to request a hearing before the Board of Directors. The owner must provide timely written request for a hearing. If the hearing is scheduled, and attended, the owner is bound by the decision of a majority of the Board.

Effective Date

This policy is effective December 14, 2020.
